Caledon\Dufferin Victim Services (CDVS) will provide the following measures of accountability:

1. Commitment

We will, within the mandate of our services:

- Ensure the highest possible standard of service for our clients and community.
- Provide service to individuals who reside in or are victimized while in the Town of Caledon and the County of Dufferin.
- Provide free of charge, inclusive, effective and efficient crisis services.
- Provide equal treatment for all people accessing our services.
- Be sensitive to race, ethnicity, gender, age, sexual orientation, socio-economic status and/or abilities of individuals.
- Be safety-sensitive and considerate of the many issues facing victims of partner assault.
- Commit to assisting victims in gaining knowledge and understanding.
- Collaborate and network with other social service agencies in the area of violence against women to enhance, complement and provide a continuum of services to victims of domestic violence.

2. Confidentiality

CDVS is committed to respecting and maintaining the confidentiality of victims with the following exceptions: when the victim is homicidal or suicidal, when there are child protection concerns or when agency occurrence reports are subpoenaed.

Although CDVS works in partnership with the Caledon and Dufferin detachments of the Ontario Provincial Police, and the Orangeville and Shelburne Police Services. CDVS does operate separately and independently of police and is therefore able to deliver a service that respects victim confidentiality.

3. Complaints resolution

Clients have the right to address concerns and/or make complaints to the agency serving them. Complaints/concerns regarding the quality or nature of the services provided can be addressed to the Executive Director of Caledon\Dufferin Victim Services. If there is failure to satisfactorily resolve a grievance, the Executive Director will report an appeal of the grievance and all pertinent information to the Board of Directors for further mediation and resolution.

SupportLink Program (Caledon only - No Fee)

Victims considered at high risk of domestic violence, sexual assault and/or stalking may be eligible for a SupportLink wireless cell phone in the Town of Caledon. These phones are preprogrammed to dial 911 in an emergent situation, allowing the victim quick and easy access to emergency services. This gives the victim a greater sense of safety and increased mobility.

DVERS Home Alarms (No Fee)

Domestic Violence Emergency Response System alarms are provided to victims at very high risk of domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking. Home alarms are provided by ADT at no cost and are hard wired to the home telephone system. The victim wears a pager and presses it to summon immediate Police response.

Victim Quick Response Program (VQRP)

Caledon\Dufferin Victim Services, in conjunction with the Ministry of the Attorney General, Ontario Victim Services Secretariat, will consider financial assistance to victims of homicide (including attempted murder), serious physical assault, domestic violence, sexual assault and hate crimes. Immediate financial assistance is available to victims of violent crimes who require financial support that cannot be obtained through other sources.

We are committed to collaboration within the

Domestic Assault Review Team
